

SALTFLEETBY NEWSLETTER

SPRING EDITION

Welcome to the Spring edition of the Saltfleetby Newsletter. Once again with articles from residents and members of the Parish Council, compiled and edited by me, Chris Stone.

Any article or advertisement submitted to me has not been edited in any way unless otherwise stated.

This edition contains a variety of articles and puzzles along with contact details of a selection of local businesses, not specifically Saltfleetby but local, who answered my call on the Saltfleetby Chat and Sell Facebook page. Not being a particular fan of Facebook myself, I currently administer the site since the departure from the village of Clare who originally created the page.

As I write this, we are approaching 450 members. Other Saltfleetby Facebook sites are also available, but I fully appreciate not everyone uses Facebook, however it exists for those who are interested.

As ever when preparing a newsletter certain assumptions are likely to be made that come publication day, turn out to be incorrect. My statement in the winter edition “by the time you read this, all four solar speed signs will be fully operational” was, as it turned out, to be extremely hopeful....! Several factors, not least very wobbly posts installed by LCC contractors, added to the delay in getting all four signs up and running. Data obtained from both stealth and fully visible units can be found later in this issue. I think it proves the point that being presented with your speed in large numbers at the side of the road does in general, help reduce speed. Speeding has been a constant concern of residents for a great number of years. It was documented in Parish Council minutes year after year, finally a successful use of community wind farm funds seems to be helping ease the problem. It is not a cure, but the figures prove it does help reduce speed, despite what the doubters have said. A list of where some of your windfarm money has been spent can be found on pages 28& 29. It was also raised at a Parish Council meeting that my statement “installation of the speed signs has been done voluntarily” was untrue, as they had been paid for by the wind farm fund. Yes, everyone knew the wind farm paid for the solar signs, it was well documented in PC minutes. The signs and solar panels were fitted to the posts and set up using dedicated software by volunteers. That’s all. Volunteers. There was no cost involved. The same can be said for the installation of the splendid new Parish Council notice board and dog waste bin, erected totally free of charge by volunteers.

On Monday May 31st 1965 Her Majesty the Queen gave a Garden Party for members of the Women's Institute to celebrate the Golden Jubilee of the Movement. Every Institute was represented by one member.

The weather was bleak and windy, but when the Queen appeared on the terrace we completely forgot the cold. She was accompanied by the Duke of Edinburgh, the Duchess of Gloucester, Princess Marina and Princess Alexandra, and the Royal party mingled with the guests speaking to as many as possible. The Queen, who had returned the previous day from a tour of Germany, was wearing a cerise wool coat and matching hat.

Tea was served at marquees lining the Palace garden, in little white and gold Queen Anne cups and saucers. After tea a sharp shower caused umbrellas to spring up like mushrooms to protect those wonderful hats.

Those hats! I think, next to the charm and daintiness of the Queen, that they are the thing I will remember most. Boaters, Bretons, turbans, pill-boxes, picture hats, lace hats, hats of tulle, net, chiffon, and in every possible colour. Looking across the garden from the terrace it was like one huge colourful flower bed.

When the time came to leave we lingered in the fore-court of the Palace and agreed that it had been a day to remember, in the W.I. Movement, for another fifty years.

I moved to Saltfleetby almost 6 years ago. Living at the Z bend end of Main Road and keen to take a walk, I found myself inevitably walking along Ings Lane or the footpath towards Marshlands. Ings Lane became the preferred route basically because our dog at the time, refused to walk on the terrible, ever deteriorating condition of the footpath. I emailed the then Parish Council with photographs depicting the various issues and received the stock response of "lack of money". I am fully aware that other issues on the roads, potholes, subsidence and the like, are also in desperate need of maintenance, but I must say A BIG THANK YOU, to all involved in the fantastic construction of the new improved footpath from the Z bend to St. Peter's. Yes, the road works and traffic lights have caused a few angry comments, but they were obviously necessary to keep our happy band of contractors safe during construction. The team of contractors could not have been more helpful and understanding, they have done an excellent job. Walking the (new) dog in the evening, with little traffic to worry about, along a flat surface is fantastic. Thank you.

Hi everyone,

My name is Ian and my partner is Julie. We have lived in Saltfleetby since July 2011. However, a few years ago Julie had a cancer diagnosis which made us re-evaluate our lives, giving us both the impetus to start a small business venture in October 2023.

To date, our customers have already included several local churches including St Peter's and a few local residential properties. Our business is called "FAB" offers the following services:

MOSS CLEARING.

We can remove problematic moss from your roof tiles using a telescopic pole and shaped scraper blades. The moss is manually scraped from each tile and we don't use any chemicals or liquids.

GUTTER CLEARING.

Using a commercial high powered vacuum cleaner with specialist poles and nozzles to Hoover all debris/leaves/moss etc from your gutters and downpipes.

CLEANING.

We clean your gutters/soffits/fascias using microfiber cloths and water and good old fashioned elbow grease to brighten up your exterior.

MINOR WORK.

We can attend to broken brackets, leaking joints, blocked downpipes etc.

What we really find most rewarding about the job so far is the social aspect of having a chat and a laugh with our customers. Ironically we have met and spoke to more people in the last few months than we have since moving here. To this end, we have already attracted a lot of repeat business.

There are bigger companies that may offer similar services to ours. However, Julie and I like to think that "FAB" offers a more personal touch and value for money.

If this article has caught your attention and you would like to know more, please get in touch and we would be happy to give you a quote.

Thanks for reading.

The Angel Inn

The history of Saltfleetby St Peter's lost Victorian Pub

Situated on the Main Road just over half a mile east of the crossroads, the Angel Inn was a thriving public house for about a 100 years or more. It was used as a meeting place where the local Lords of the Manor would collect annual rent due from their tenants. It also hosted meetings of local landowners regarding the payment of tithes to St Peter's parish clergy. Henry Hewitt Plumtree and his wife Jane (nee Gilbert) from Salmonby ran the pub in the 1820s, their eldest son Henry was born here in 1827 and baptised at St Peter's church in January 1828. In 1830 they moved to Tetford where they ran a Butcher's shop and had a further 5 children. The Angel was then briefly occupied by Abraham Hay from Great Carlton and his wife Elizabeth (nee Pogson) from Horncastle, who had previously been publicans in Tetford. They moved on to be proprietor of public houses in Holton le Clay and Tetney.

Mr Hay's brother, David continued to live in a cottage in Saltfleetby St Clements. The next tenant of the pub was Mr Drewry, before it was let to the Denniss family in 1833 who remained as innkeepers for the next 38 years.

Thomas Denniss was born in Beesby, Lincolnshire in 1798, and moved with his family to Saltfleetby St Clement when he was about 9 years old.

He married Frances Cotton from Louth at St Peter's Church in 1824. Their children Henry, Edward, Charles, George and Frances were all born in

Saltfleetby and grew up at the Angel. They also farmed the adjoining land, initially 10 acres, acquiring more, until their farm covered an area of 30 acres by 1871.

Auctions of local farmland, property and commodities were frequently held at the Angel, conducted by solicitors from Louth. Public meetings were also held there to discuss local issues such as the the inclosure of Saltfleetby North Ings in 1836

Mr and Mrs Denniss also hosted sporting events and dinners at the Angel, with such attractions as pigeon shoots, donkey races and foot races to win generous prizes!

Mrs Denniss's older sister, Miss Elizabeth Cotton, lived with them from the 1850s and assisted with the pub. Both ladies were well-known and admired for their cooking and skills as hostesses, making the Angel a favourite venue for social gatherings.

These included annual meetings of Saltfleetby's Bachelor Society, which ran for over 20 years. Meetings of the village's farmers and tradesmen were also held annually, which included enjoying a "first - rate" supper prepared by Mrs Denniss, before the toasts were given.

Bachelors' Society.—It appears that the bachelors, and another class called the "Fumblers," of Saltfleetby, have formed themselves into a society for the purpose of meeting together once a year, when an opportunity is given them either for congratulation or condolence, as these worthies may consider their several cases may deserve. Thursday the 2nd inst. was the day on which the last anniversary of the society was celebrated, on which occasion about thirty members and friends partook of an excellent dinner at Mr. Denniss, the Angel inn. After dinner the usual loyal and complimentary toasts were given, speeches on the virtues and blessings of celibacy were delivered, and the hilarity of the entertainment was kept up until a very late hour; so very late, that none but bona-fide bachelors would have dreamt of stopping.

The Lincolnshire Chronicle, 10th December 1858

Pigeon Shooting.—A match for ten pounds was contested on Monday last, at Saltfleetby, by eight gentlemen, four against four, and was won by that division which was partly named by Bostonians, to the discomfiture of the one entirely composed of gentlemen of the neighbourhood. The shooting was altogether very good, few birds evading their destiny; in fact some of the competitors did not waste a shot. A large and respectable company attended to witness the sport, most of whom afterwards sat down to a first-class dinner provided by the hostess of the Angel inn.

The Lincolnshire Chronicle, 21st May 1858

Frances died in 1871 age 76, and Thomas in 1872 age 74. They were buried at Great Carlton, St John the Baptist churchyard. The Angel was then taken over by the Barker family.

William Barker was born in Saltfleetby St Clement in 1813, he married Mary Houltby from Greetham in 1839. The couple lived in Scamblesby and Asterby where they had a large family of 11 children. In 1872 William and Mary were publicans at the Angel Inn before passing the business on to their son and retiring to South Cockerington. William died in 1892 age 79, and Mary in 1899 age 86.

—William Barker, of the Angel Inn, Saltfleetby, All Saints, was charged with permitting drunkenness on the 8th ult. Needham, a small farmer, was proved to have been in the house seven hours, and was in drink when he went there. P.C. Thurlby proved the case. Fined 14s. 6d., including costs.—

1896 Kelly's Directory of Lincolnshire

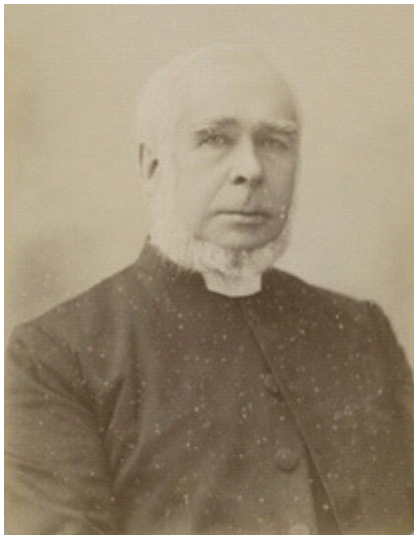

By 1881 Evison Smith Barker was running the Angel with his wife Eliza (nee Enderby) from Kirmond le Mire, Lincolnshire. The couple lived at Gayton le Wold, then Pinchbeck before moving to Saltfleetby with their 5 children: Alice, William, Eliza, Jane and Jessie. They had a further two children at Saltfleetby: Charles in 1882 and James in 1884. A family business, their children helped run the pub and serve customers as well as run the small adjoining farm

The Barkers were initially tenants at the pub. At this time it was owned by the Bishop of Melbourne, Australia: The Right Reverend Field Flowers Goe, whose family owned property in area.

—All the existing licences were renewed, including that of the Angel, Saltfleetby, the property of the Lord Bishop of Melbourne, Australia.

May 1858

The son of the Mayor of Louth, a solicitor, also called Field Flowers Goe, Rev. Goe was born in Louth in 1832 and grew up on Bridge Street. He attended King Edward VI school, then Hertford College, Oxford. He was ordained a priest in 1858 and began his career working as curate at Hull. Here he met and married Emma Rogers Hurst from Doncaster. They lived in Sunderland and Bloomsbury, London where he took up posts as rector in the Church of England.

They moved to Australia when he was appointed the 3rd Anglican Bishop of Melbourne in 1886. During this time Emma suffered a long illness, passing away in 1901. There is a memorial plaque dedicated to her in Melbourne Cathedral. Rev. Goe retired soon after his wife's death and returned to England, living in Wimbledon. He died in June 1910 and is buried in Louth cemetery.

Following the death of Rev. Goe, the pub, with over nine acres of pasture and arable land, was put up for sale and bought by the innkeeper, Evison Barker for £545

In 1911 James Fowler Barker was running the pub alongside his parents. Eliza died in Saltfleetby in 1912, age 70. Evison retired to live in Louth where he died in 1920 age 77, having passed his pub on to his son, James.

The Angel Inn, Saltfleetby St. Peter's, with pasture and arable land, 9,548 acres, was bought by Mr. E. S. Barker, the tenant, for £545.

Nottingham Guardian Journal, 8th September 1910

James Barker joined the army in the First World War and served as a driver with the Royal Army Service Corps at Park Royal in London . His civilian profession was listed as "innkeeper" . In January 1919 he was discharged after sustaining an accidental injury of a broken ankle.

Returning to Saltfleetby , he continued to run the Angel Inn . Its licence was reported as lapsed in February 1922 , and it closed permanently at around this time

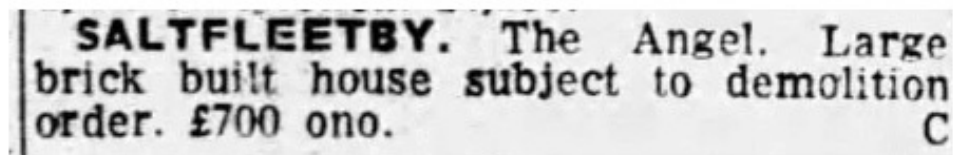

At Louth County Brewster Sessions yesterday, Superintendent Skinner reported that there were 23 licensed houses in the division, or one to 422 of the population. The licences of the "Angel" at Saltfleetby and the "Raven" at Louth Park had lapsed. Five persons had been proceeded against for drunkenness, and four were convicted. The existing licences were renewed.

The Sheffield Daily Telegraph, 9th February 1922

James went to live on North End Lane where he worked as a general farm labourer. Later in life he used a wheelchair after illness resulted in the amputation of a leg. He lived with his niece Olive North , a poultry farmer, on North End Lane . He died here in 1950 age 67

Farmer Mr C. Winter occupied the old Angel Inn building as a private residence in the 1940s. Here he kept Friesian cattle, ducks and other livestock. In November 1947 a sale took place of Mr Winter's stock , by auction at the Old Angel Inn

The building later became derelict and was sold for demolition in January 1972, advertised for £700 or nearest offer

Saltfleetby Community Association

Marshlands Community Hall, Saltfleetby, Lincs, LN11 7SS

The committee continue to host and inform you of events taking place at Marshlands Community Hall, which we hope will be of interest to villagers and visitors alike.

Coffee mornings are held every 3rd Friday of the month, 10am-12 noon with tea, coffee, biscuits and an array of delicious, mainly home baked cakes on offer.

Coming up on the Saturday 4th May 9am - 12noon we have a jumble/rummage sale with clothing, toys and bric a brac (NO ELECTRICAL GOODS). If anyone has goods to donate, please contact Karen 07789268085 who will make arrangements to collect in the week preceding the event.

Going into June, on the 6th we have the lighting of the beacon to commemorate the 80th Anniversary of the D Day Landings. The bar will be open from 7.30pm with the beacon being lit at 9.15pm. Hopefully, the Fish & Chip van will be in attendance.

Moving onto July and you need to get your dancing shoes polished as we have the ever popular Ceilidh with dancing to the "Rake up" band. Starting at 7.30pm on 27th July, the main hall will only have minimal seating allowing plenty of room for dancing and stepping on toes. There will be plenty of seating in the bar and weather permitting, under the attached verandah. Ticket prices and further information nearer the time.

Looking further ahead, there may well be a celebration of Lincolnshire food at the beginning of October with the popular pie and pea supper and quiz returning in November, and Who knows, maybe a party in December dependant upon the bearded man being available.

This year we have chosen the Lincs and Notts Air Ambulance as our nominated charity, with a percentage of any money raised at our events plus any donations received being forwarded to this very worthy charity.

We look forward to your continued support and are happy to listen to ideas for future events. We have monthly meetings at Marshlands Community Hall on the first Wednesday of the month 6.30pm onwards.

The new speed signs, purchased using community wind farm funds, have now been in operation for well over 6 weeks. Two units have proved to be extremely useful in slowing the traffic through the footpath roadworks as we were able to adjust the indicated maximum speed to keep the construction area as safe as possible. You will have noticed a maximum of either 20 mph through the cones or 30 mph approaching the traffic lights.

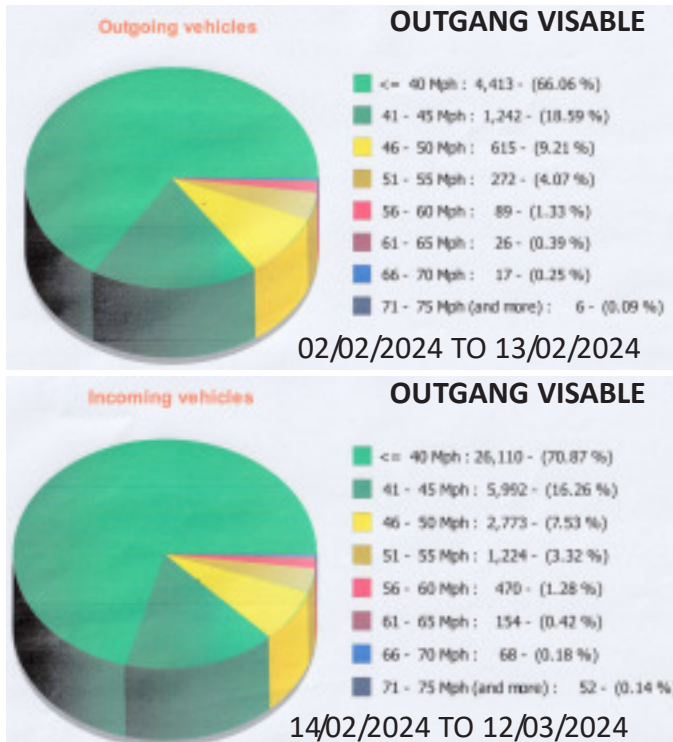

This however has had a bearing on the results obtained. Consequently, the following results have only been downloaded from the unit near the Outgang. Incoming vehicles are obviously the vehicles that are picked up by the radar when approaching the sign displaying your speed; outgoing, are driving away from the unit when no speed is displayed but is recorded.

With unit in stealth mode, incoming vehicles were recorded but the speed was not displayed. These figures were obtained from 02-02-24 to 13-02-24

With the sign in place appearing as if it were not working, around 37% of vehicles were travelling faster than the 40 limit. Please remember this was a very small sample taken in one area due to the continuing roadworks. The figures obtained once the speed was displayed are from a much greater group but again, only one area. It is hoped to give a more detailed analysis of the results in the next edition of the magazine when the footpath work will have been completed.

The test results from an Archer test on North End Lane back in July 2023 can be seen in the table below. I hope this is fairly self-explanatory but basically the average speed is within the current speed limit .

In this instance would you please direct any questions or comments to the Parish Council Clerk . Thank you.

As a new editor could not be found I was once again tasked with putting together what I considered to be a useful and hopefully informative issue. In an attempt to inform the whole village about the various clubs, organisations and groups available to everyone, I emailed the following to the Saltfleetby Community Association (SCA), Soloby Old School Hub (SOSH), The Fisheries, Saltfleetby Snooker Club, Saltfleetby Bowls Club, Louth & District Archers, St Peter's Church, Louth Town Football Club and The Prussian Queen (the Prussian contact was via Messenger as I did not have an email address). My email read-----

In my constant quest for openness and transparency, it is my intention to list village organisations in the Spring edition of the Saltfleetby Newsletter. Could you please supply me with a list your officers/committee members/ trustees for inclusion. The magazine reaches every household in the village.

A contact name , phone number and/or email would be useful if possible.

Details are required by 18th March latest please. Thanks Chris.

Here are the details, supplied by the two who responded. You can draw your own conclusions.

It is disappointing that so few organisations have come forward to have their details in this newsletter – however we are pleased that the following organisations have shared their details so the community can see the opportunities open to them.

JUNE'S CHARITY BINGO

HELD ON THE LAST SUNDAY OF EVERY MONTH AT ST PETER'S CHURCH

By kind permission of the Rural Deans Office the next Charity Bingo evening will take place on Easter Sunday

31st March at St Peter's Church, Saltfleetby

Great Bingo prizes along with a raffle.

Free refreshments served at half time.

To avoid any confusion or controversy I would like to explain that June's Charity Bingo Event is just that. An event run to gather funds to donate to worthy charities. In the same way that other village groups raise funds for a charity of their choice, June organises and runs a fun bingo evening, now held once more in its original home of St Peter's Church and donates a percentage of the takings to charity with the remainder used to purchase the following months prizes. June herself is not a charity. She does not need to be registered in anyway but does have her accounts professionally examined. June and her band of helpers are extremely grateful for your continued support and look forward to seeing you on Easter Sunday.

To complete the Sudoku puzzle, enter numbers into the spaces so that each row, column and 3×3 box contains the digits 1 to 9 without repeats.

Some tips for solving Sudoku:

- Avoid trial and error – find a logical reason for entering each number.
- Look for rows, columns and 3×3 boxes with just a few blanks remaining.
- Try adding numbers which already appear often in the Sudoku puzzle.
- After entering a number, check to see where else it has to go.

INFORMATION ABOUT SALTFLEETBY BILLIARD CLUB - THE ORIGINAL TITLE

This information is from John Harrison, who moved at aged 7 to Sturdys Farm, Saltfleetby in 1947. I was a member of the Billiard Club from aged 14 at which time the Club was located in a building at White House Farm, opposite to Sturdys Farm. At the time the farm was owned by Mr Tommy Jaques. Members of the Club paid a subscription and for the use of the table.

The Club had a number of locations -

Originally, it was based in a building beside the village shop owned by the Kidd sisters. (This is the same site where the village shop was situated, until relatively recently, but is now a house).

Subsequently it moved to a building adjacent to Moat Hall, on the righthand side of the drive. Mr Sid Richardson told me the history of the Club beginnings when I joined in 1954. Later it moved to White House Farm. The Club Teams played in the local leagues. It was well supported by both players and their families. At home league matches refreshments (tea and biscuits) were provided by Freshney Larder (village postmaster) and his daughter, Marjorie. They lived nearby at the Post Office (which was next to the drive to Saltfleetby Station Yard. Initially, Freshney delivered the mail on his bike, and Marjorie did this for many years, in all weathers. As a younger member it was my responsibility to go in early on match nights to light the coke stove and iron the table. At that time the Club had only a 3/4 table. I took over this responsibility from Mr Carter Enderby, who lived in Drovers' Cottage. The Billiard Club and table moved to the Chapel. I believe the chapel closed in 1961 It was originally the St. Peter Centenary Primitive Methodist Church. the background to this is as follows:

Herbert Lusby, a farmer from Beulah Farm Saltfleetby, purchased the closed Chapel for £1,000, intending to use it for storing machinery. His brother Arthur Lusby suggested that it would be ideal for use as the Billiard Club.

Editors note: This is page one of three that was read out during the Snooker Club AGM. I am not in a position to print the remainder at this time. Details regarding ownership of the building are currently under investigation.
